Caring for others

Listen to a story about caring for others.

Resilience & Change

Listening choices

You can listen quietly.

You can point or speak.

You may ask for a quiet pause.

A man needs help

A man was hurt.

He needed help.

Two people went past.

A helper stops

A helper saw the man.

He stopped and cared for him.

He paid for the man's care.

Care for someone different

The helper showed care.

He helped someone in need.

Many Christians learn about caring from this story.

Our talk

The helper showed care

when he _____.

stopped to help went past

One line

The helper showed care

by _____.

Tell an adult or write in your book.

Our exit

Name or point to one caring action.

In real life, ask a trusted adult for help.