Talking about sorry and change

White standard edition

Recognise the value of saying sorry.

Talk about a scene

The person says sorry for ____.
They could ____.
This may help because ____.

Think about the change

What goes back?
What is still on the floor?
Who needs a turn?

Your one-line practice

I can say sorry by…

Use kind words, say what happened or offer to help. An adult may scribe your own words.

The other person may still need time or space. You can learn about sorry without making a real apology.