Caring ideas and record examples

White standard edition

These invented small-action choices recall earlier learning. Use your own earlier plan or action if you want. No action had to be completed at home.

| | |
|---|---|
| A Say thank youThank a person for some help. | B Offer a turnOffer a turn with a shared item. |
| C Offer helpAsk if help is wanted with a small safe task. | D Put an item backPut back a shared item I used, if it is safe. |
| E Give time to speakLet a person finish what they want to say. | F Offer a kind drawingOffer a kind drawing, if it is wanted. |

You may use another small safe action. If you make a new plan, label it as new. Help should be wanted, and a person may say no.

Caring ideas and record examples continued

White standard edition

A planned action

An invented example about no real person.

I planned to offer a turn with a shared item. It could help someone in my group have a go. I felt unsure about my plan.

The record uses planned and could help. It does not claim the action happened.

An action that happened

An invented example about no real person.

I offered a turn with a shared item. Another person chose to have a go. I felt calm.

The speaker records their own feeling. We do not assume everyone would feel the same.