Care and taught words

First use story A. Then match the taught words.
+ care ? help || pause

Story A
A young person needs time to talk. An adult waits while the young person uses an aid.
Which act shows care? Why could it help?

Point, say, draw, write or use an aid. No private story is needed.

Word cards

A	B	C	D
penis	scrotum	testicles	vulva

Meaning cards

Card	Meaning
1	The genital parts on the outside of the body.
2	The skin sac that holds the testicles.
3	Body parts held inside the scrotum.
4	A body part at the front, above the scrotum.

Match each word card to its meaning. These are taught words about body parts. They are not labels for a real person.

Adult: use only terms taught before. Record the word bank, terms checked and any extra help. Keep all unassessed terms marked as gaps.

Privacy and permission

First read B. Then read C.
+ care ? help || pause

Story B
A young person is changing clothes. Another person knocks and waits outside.
Does this respect privacy? What should the person outside do next?

Point, say, draw, write or use an aid.

Story C
A young person asks to borrow a pen. The owner says no.
What should the young person do next? Give a reason from the story.

Each story is made up. No one has to act it out or share a private story.

Adult: record each first action and reason. Keep feedback until the later response stage.

A route to help

First show a request for D. Then use the next route for E.
? help || pause

In these stories, the tutor and duty adult are trusted adults who can help. The tutor is away in E.

Story D
A peer keeps moving a young person’s bag without asking. The young person wants this to stop.
Show a request for help about this worry.

Point, say, draw, write or use an aid. An adult can read both parts.

Story E
The young person goes to the tutor for help. The tutor is away.
Which adult could help next? Show what the young person could ask.

Adult role cards
