Jobs for our day out

Thursday 5 November 2026 | 12:50–14:10 | Year A

Shared jobs

A pair can share a job. Use anonymous codes. Agree a fair share with an adult. An adult keeps responsibility for the visit, movement and safety. A job card gives you a part to do; it does not give permission to go alone.

Navigator

Code one _____ Code two _____
1. Look at the approved plan with an adult.
2. Point to the next agreed stop.
3. Help the group check where it is going.
FINISH: show the next stop to the adult. Stay with the group. The adult agrees every route and move.

Recorder

Code one _____ Code two _____
1. Keep the team's question where you can find it.
2. Write, draw or ask an adult to scribe an answer.
3. Keep the object or extract code beside your note.
FINISH: one useful note for the exhibit, or a clear question still open. Record what you find, not a guessed answer.

Photographer

Code one _____ Code two _____
1. Tell the adult which object or work you want to record.
2. Wait for the adult's permission and help.
3. Use an approved photo code or make a sketch instead.
FINISH: one approved object or work image, or a sketch. The adult checks permission and device use. Keep people and identifying details out of the picture.

Kit lead

Code one _____ Code two _____
1. Check the agreed list with an adult.
2. Help your pair keep the shared kit together.
3. Check it back in at the agreed point.
FINISH: tick the items returned or tell the adult what is missing. An adult holds any restricted, personal or important items. Do not carry another person's private belongings.

Our role check

Our team is _____. Our agreed jobs are _____. A pair can share one job. In a three-person team, ask an adult to help cover a role or agree a small combined role. No one must do every job. We can ask for help, pass on a task or use our usual aid.
