Words for evaluating accounts

Tuesday 19 January 2027 | P2 | 40 minutes | Year A

Humanities | LAUNCH | Spring 1 Week 3 | HUM-LAUNCH-S1-W03

White paper version. Read quietly, point, write, type, speak privately or direct a scribe. You may pass. No public answer or reading aloud is required.

| Word | Meaning |
|---|---|
| eyewitness | Someone who was present and saw part of an event. |
| testimony | An account a person gives about their own experience. |
| recording context | When, how, why and with whom an account was recorded. |
| purpose | The reason a source was made. |
| memory | What a person recalls. Recall is not a recording of every detail. |
| corroboration | Checking a claim against other evidence. |
| independent source | Evidence with a separate origin, not copied from the same account. |
| perspective | What a person could see, know and understand from their position. |
| limit | What a source cannot tell us or establish on its own. |
| respect | Treating people and their accounts with dignity while asking careful questions. |

Say or point to a word for private help. No reading aloud is required.

A reasoned judgement concerns a particular claim and question. It is not a label of good or bad person.
