Humanities | LAUNCH | Spring 1 Week 4 | HUM-LAUNCH-S1-W04

White paper version. Read quietly, point, write, type, speak privately or direct a scribe. You may pass. No public answer or reading aloud is required.

Learning outcome: Why we remember: significance of remembrance.

Route Supported

Why does remembering matter today?

1 Use R1–R3 to name the people, the warning and the responsibility. An adult may read exactly; choose a reason for each purpose.

2 Use R4, R5 or R6 as your example. Say how that type serves a purpose. Keep the national day's date and purpose from R5.

3 Use the frame for your own short answer. Include a limit and one safe responsibility. Point, type or direct a scribe if needed.

Why does remembering matter today?

1 Keep the same common finish. Explain how one type of remembrance could serve more than one purpose.

2 Compare the value and limits of two types without ranking communities or suffering. Explain why accurate context matters.

3 Make a reasoned judgement about why remembrance matters today. Avoid claiming that remembrance alone guarantees prevention.
