I do · key model

In your book: One contrast and one repeat from the model, shown with marks or words.

This is made-up art for an imagined festival light display.

We are choosing its effect; we are not copying a faith's image.

1. Choose a dark ground.
2. Plan a yellow ring, then an orange dot.
3. Repeat that pair three times. Leave dark gaps.
4. Check: can I follow ring, dot, ring, dot?
5. Review one strength and one change.

My strength: the bright marks contrast with the dark ground.

My change: I could make the ring outlines thicker so they show more clearly.

I test that change on a scrap. If I use it, I change each ring in the repeat.

Record one key link or step.
