Knowledge organiser

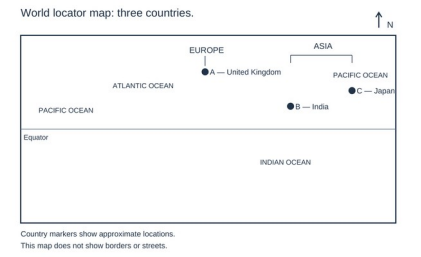

I can use a map and its index to locate places.

Find a country

The index gives marker A.

I find A on the map.

It is in Europe.

On this north-up map, A is the United Kingdom in Europe. B is India in Asia, south-east of A. C is Japan in Asia, north-east of B. The Atlantic is west of A; the Indian Ocean is south of B; the Pacific is east of C. These are broad world locations, not travel directions.

Continents and oceans

The United Kingdom, or UK, is in Europe. Its west coast faces the Atlantic Ocean.

India is in Asia. It has coasts on the Indian Ocean and its seas.

Japan is in Asia. It is an island country beside the Pacific Ocean.

This map shows a country marker. It does not show every person's beliefs.

A festival can be shared in more than one country.
