Starter · 3 min · 05 to 08

In your book: Your map choice and one word or clue for why.

A group wants to find Japan and the ocean beside it.

Which map should they start with?

A: World locator W.

B: Detailed street map S.

C: A festival greeting with no map.

Why that choice?

Write, draw or stick your answer here.

I do · key model

In your book: One location link from the model: country, continent and ocean.

Find, locate, check

Step 1 — Find the name

I look for United Kingdom in the index.

The index gives marker A.

Step 2 — Locate it

I find A on the map.

It is in Europe.

Step 3 — Check its ocean

Card A says its west coast faces the Atlantic.

I find the Atlantic to the west of A.

Record one key link or step.

I · S · C ☐

Use the world locator, index and place cards.

1. Locate the UK, India and Japan. Record each marker letter.
2. Give each country's continent and one ocean beside it.
3. Describe Japan's direction from India using the north arrow.
4. The community card links a festival in the UK and India. Explain why a country marker cannot tell us every person's belief.
5. Choose W or S for a street crossing. Give one reason.

Frame if useful: '____ is in ____. It lies beside ____.'

You may point, speak, sign, use symbols, draw or write. You may pass.

Review and improve: Check one country-to-ocean match using both the map and its place card. Make one change or confirm it with a clue.

Write, draw or stick your answer here.

Everyone's map checks

1. Place the UK label on A, B or C. Match its continent and ocean.
2. Place Japan on A, B or C. Match its continent and ocean.
3. From India to Japan on this map, is the direction north-east or south-west?
4. The community card links the UK and India. Can one festival be marked in both places?

Record one guided example and one clue.
