TA brief

They are constructed classroom examples, not historical artworks or evidence of attendance at an arts event. Label this lesson's mini-gallery review CLASSROOM PRACTICE. Keep any genuine experience record separate; this lesson does not complete or sign off Unit 1.

Read one prompt at a time. Every task can be answered by pointing, speaking, signing, using symbols, drawing or writing. A pupil may pass. No cold calling or required public reading. Allow thinking time, then invite all pupils to show a choice together. An adult can move cards or scribe the pupil's exact words. Do not substitute an adult's interpretation for the pupil's. A pass needs no book entry.

Use one Arrival tier and one Exit tier for each pupil, not all three. Keep Answer (adult) lines out of pupil view until after responses. Offer one You do route; the four routes are alternatives. Keep the artworks visible and invite evidence-based disagreement. Personal taste is not marked right or wrong. No personal story, belief, family detail or loss is requested.

Preparation — complete teaching-artwork cues

Prepare two plain rectangular images before the lesson. Show both throughout. No names, logos or branding appear on them. These descriptions are the specification for the classroom examples. Do not substitute a different image; keep these answer keys.

Artwork A, title Flow: a pale cream field; three broad blue and teal curved bands running from left towards right, with clear pale gaps; one small solid orange circle above the bands towards the upper right. The circle does not touch a band. Leave open pale space around the forms. No people, letters or objects are depicted.

Artwork B, title Crossing: an orange field; three dark charcoal diagonal strips crossing and overlapping near the centre; a large white circle at the right edge with part of the circle beyond the image, so it is cropped. The strips have straight edges. No people or letters are depicted.

TA brief

Prepare four category cards: Feature / Interpretation / Recommendation / Unsupported claim. Prepare the four sentence cards printed in We do. Provide two plain audience cards: Viewers who enjoy abstract images / Viewers seeking a detailed, lifelike portrait. Read all cards aloud. Offer large, high-contrast copies and a spoken description of each artwork. If a pupil uses the description, note that access route; do not treat visual acuity as reviewing skill. Make a private adult-listener option available.

Adult-only note: Possible EHCP outcome areas are communication and interaction (expressing and checking meaning), cognition and learning (selecting evidence and organising an explanation), and independence (choosing a response mode and checking one claim). Observe only the relevant individual outcome actually shown; do not infer progress in every area from a finished review.

Adult-only note: Regulation strategy — agree a quiet pause signal at the start; keep the pupil's selected image and first step ready for a calm return within task time.

Same-day evidence — ART-LAUNCH-A2-W01: the assigned adult records the chosen artwork, the pupil's exact review or selected/annotated evidence, the response mode and actual support. File one book item, a before-and-after photograph of the upgraded claim or brief observation in the evidence app the same day under ART-LAUNCH-A2-W01. Record how the listener received and checked the pupil's meaning. A photograph alone does not establish the reasoning. Use no pupil, staff or school names in this teaching document.

1. Prepare the exact two constructed artwork cues, category cards and sentence cards. Keep practice and genuine event records separate; this lesson makes no Unit 1 completion claim.

2. Read one prompt at a time. Offer point, speech, sign, symbols, drawing or writing, private sharing and pass. Never select an unwilling pupil to perform or read aloud.

3. Separate feature, interpretation and evidence about intention. Accept a different supported view; do not reward certainty or agreement with the adult.

4. Offer one You do route. Record the actual prompt and pupil decision. Check one claim against the work and let the pupil confirm the listener's account.

5. Use the agreed pause signal and quiet return step. File a concise record in the evidence app the same day under ART-LAUNCH-A2-W01 showing the review evidence, audience exchange and support used.

Arrival · 5 minutes

Adult note: Display Flow and Crossing with their titles. Read the preparation descriptions if needed. Accept a point or selection as evidence of a feature; ask for the extra reason only where the selected tier asks for it. Invite four short responses. Do not require any earlier review or event attendance. The two artworks and their descriptions are supplied clues, not a test of prior learning.

Starter · 3 minutes

Adult note: Read both once. All pupils decide privately before anyone shares. A pupil may pass or ask for the choices again. The adult points only where the pupil directs, without locating the evidence for them.

I do · 6 minutes

Adult note: Model a short practice review using the visible Flow image. Point as you speak. Allow a quiet check after each step. Pupils can point, speak, sign, use symbols, draw or write to signal agreement, a question or a different reading; they may pass. Do not require them to copy the model.

Adult note: Explain contrast here as a noticeable difference. The feature is visible; calm is one reading, not an agreed fact about the work.

Adult note: A fair review need not invent a bad point. It can acknowledge another reading, an audience need or a real limit in the evidence.

We do · 8 minutes

Adult note: Give each pupil the four category choices or symbols. For each card, read it, allow a private decision, then invite every pupil to show a category together. No cold calling; pass is allowed. A volunteer or adult moves the shared card only after these decisions. A sentence can serve more than one purpose; accept a reasoned classification while naming its main job here.

Reserved guided-example space: [Leave space here for one category choice and one pointed, drawn, selected or written evidence detail.]

You do · 15 minutes

Adult note: All work here is CLASSROOM PRACTICE, using the fully specified mini-gallery. Allow two minutes to select evidence, nine to compose, two to check a claim and two to review it with an adult. These are inside the stage, not extra stages. Keep both works visible. A private spoken, signed, symbol or drawn review can carry the same reasoning as a written one; the adult records only the pupil's own meaning. No electronic recording is required.

Adult note: The listener names back one judgement and its evidence. The pupil confirms or corrects that account, then chooses one small revision or explains why the evidence already supports the claim. Mark an actual self-edit // where useful. A next-step response must be genuine, not an automatic completion tick. Give a brief written note against the review criteria (two accurate features, a supported judgement, a qualification, an audience reason) and name the improvement. The pupil upgrades the checked claim in green pen (or by the same response mode). If a longer written review is made, its response is deferred to the first 10 to 15 minutes of the next lesson.

Staff mark actual support I, S or C (Independent, Supported or Choice); record support accurately for Aspire too.

Exit ticket · 3 minutes

Adult note: Use one tier. Keep the artworks visible. Invite three brief checks, with no cold calling and the option to pass. A pupil may point, speak, sign, use symbols, draw or write. The adult notes the reason expressed, not the length of writing. Use the review already made as the evidence; do not set a new long review.

TA brief · feedback and prompt ladder

Prompt ladder for adults

1. Point to the relevant place / instruction.
2. Ask one short question: "What is it asking you to find?"
3. Rephrase the instruction in simpler language.
4. Provide a scaffold or limited choice.
5. Model the first step only, then return the task to the pupil.

No cold calling; nobody is asked to read difficult text aloud.

Space: allow quiet thinking and a private response.

Feedback [VF] [NS]: give verbal feedback and brief written feedback against the review criteria.

Voice [//]: retain the pupil's artwork, review and reflection.

Audience: engage with the review against the criteria; give one next step, and listen to any clip in full before tagging; mark [R] only after receipt.

Influence [NS]: use the portfolio review to select the next evidence step.

Use [WS] for supported work and [I] for independent work. Use [?] to invite a read-back and [//] for a self-edit.

Evidence [E] · ART-LAUNCH-A2-W01: the assigned adult uploads the selected book item, artwork photo with its observation, or exact response to the evidence app the same day, labelled ART-LAUNCH-A2-W01. Capture is not closure; a photo alone does not establish understanding.

Staff: mark I, S or C beside the You do response for actual independence, support or choice.
