What do you notice about the dropped card?

In your book: Give one short reply or mark. You may pass.

Method

Watch one step at a time.

I choose to ask first. The pencil belongs to someone else. Asking respects their choice. Taking it without asking would break the fair rule in this case.

In your book: Keep one useful word or model step. Mark it Model. Do not copy the whole slide.

Use the case detail. A made-up case is not a real person's story.

Made-up group case: A group is making paper shapes. One person drops their shape card. A second person sees it.

Act A: return the card to its owner. Act B: hide the card so the owner cannot use it.

The group rule is to care for each person and their work. We judge the act, not call a whole person bad.

We Do

Choose a fair act in the class case. Give one reason from the case. You can say “depends” if you say what would matter.

Have a quiet try before the class check. You may pass.

Guided record: My first try [ ] / My own word or mark [ ] / My check [ ].

In your book: Keep one guided try and one word or mark of your own.

Main source — story/case cards

Made-up group case: A group is making paper shapes. One person drops their shape card. A second person sees it.

Act A: return the card to its owner. Act B: hide the card so the owner cannot use it.

The group rule is to care for each person and their work. We judge the act, not call a whole person bad.

Picture access — Starter observation

A shape card lies on the floor by a table. One person points to it. Two small act cards show giving it back and hiding it behind a box.
