Use the case detail. A made-up case is not a real person's story.

Made-up club case: A person is sorting a set of picture cards. The cards are mixed up. They say they would like some help.

A helper could ask what sort of help is wanted, then help in that way. The person can change their mind.

You may plan for the made-up helper. You need not tell us about your life or promise to do the act. Quiet reflection is a choice, not worship.

We Do

Make a short kind plan for the helper. Keep the other person's choice. Give one reason why the plan fits.

Have a quiet try before the class check. You may pass.

Guided record: My first try [ ] / My own word or mark [ ] / My check [ ].

In your book: Keep one guided try and one word or mark of your own.

Main source — story/case cards

Made-up club case: A person is sorting a set of picture cards. The cards are mixed up. They say they would like some help.

A helper could ask what sort of help is wanted, then help in that way. The person can change their mind.

You may plan for the made-up helper. You need not tell us about your life or promise to do the act. Quiet reflection is a choice, not worship.

Picture access — Starter observation

Mixed picture cards lie on a table. Two people sit with a space between them. A speech bubble shows that help has been asked for.

Model source — I Do only

Made-up model case: A person has asked for help finding their own coat on a low peg. A helper plans to ask which coat and then point it out.

Class source — We Do only

Made-up class case: A person asks for help to find a page. A helper can ask which page, then point to it. The person can say that no more help is needed.
