Case sources

Use the case detail. A made-up case is not a real person's story.

Made-up craft-group case: One person has no card to draw on. There is spare card on the table. The group rule says each person may take one sheet if they need it.

A helper could offer the person a sheet and let them choose. The person may say yes or no.

Use this case for your caring record. It is not a report about your own life. You may pass.
