Source and exact outcome

Record 'then & now' with photos/captions. From BUILD Weekly - Spring!B45/C45. Thursday 11 February 2027, P3. Theme: Resilience & Change. Assessing week under the owner brief. Supplied pictures or drawing replace photos.

Picture key and model captions

Top then, bottom now. Left high street, middle park, right bus stop. All places and changes invented. Label then left and now right in the finished book record. Accept short phrases that preserve the meaning, not just the full model sentences.

Place	Then caption	Now caption
high street	Then there were steps.	Now there is a ramp.
park	Then there was no bench.	Now there is a bench.
bus stop	Then there was no shelter.	Now there is a shelter.

Private hinge and support

“Now there is a bench” matches the now park view. If unsure, trace the space without a bench then the bench and re-pair the caption. Parallel check: “Now there is a shelter” matches the now bus-stop view. Keep the banks, starters and visible model. Drawing skill and spelling are not the outcome.

Known and unknown

Shops, tree/path and stop pole/fence stay in the paired scenes. No real place, building, person, event or exact date is shown. The earlier/later context is supplied fiction. Reasons, dates and bus times are not given. A pupil may ask a question for extension; an honest answer may be “We do not know.”

Use the six-outcome grid fairly

Use Evidence Sheet page 2 once per pupil, using Pupil number: ____. Review dated records from Weeks 1–5; today directly assesses the two-panel record. A private check may add evidence, but never backfill invented results. Preserve the six outcomes verbatim.

Tick	Meaning	Record
S	Shown	What was demonstrated, date/reference and support.
P	Part shown	What is secure and the specific gap.
N	Not yet shown	A fair supported chance occurred; note what to revisit.
U	Not seen	No usable evidence or no chance to observe; plan a check.

Do not infer all six outcomes from one completed record. Missing work or absence is not a failure judgement. Supported performance can show an outcome; record support separately. Leave absent pupils blank. Week 1 can use earlier anonymised book evidence; no personal retelling is required today.

Scribing and confirmation

Pupil chooses and directs the caption meaning. Adult may write selected labels, read back quietly and offer keep/change. Record adult-supplied ideas and mode. A copied model without pupil confirmation is not enough evidence of meaning. No public questioning, cold calling or required reading aloud.

Feedback and close

Use HUM-BUILD-S1-W06-E1. Actual audience reply, one NS and the pupil's own response precede R; actual banking precedes E. Offer authentic choices and captions to the Communication portfolio. [AWARD] / [QUAL] checks separate; no award decision inferred. BUILD Humanities Spring 1 ends here; pause for the next brief.
