Word	Meaning
Worry	A thought that can make you feel unsure.
Adult	A grown-up.
Trusted adult	An adult who listens and helps safely.
Role	A type, such as teacher. It is not a name.
Opener	The first words used to start a talk.
Quiet place	A calm place agreed by school staff.
Private	Not shared with the group.
Secret	Something kept hidden. A safe talk need not stay secret.
Busy	Not able to talk just now.
Usual aid	Help you use to take part.

A model

The story pupil asks a teaching assistant: Can I talk to you?

The next safe step

If the adult is busy, ask when to talk or try another trusted adult.

Help

For a real worry, ask a trusted adult in private. You can point, pass or ask for help. Use roles, not names, in class work.
