Plan the day out P5

Thursday 5 November 2026 | 12:50–14:10 | Year A

Pink paper version | Same task and finish | Point, speak, draw, write or use a scribe.

P5 | Supported | Team ____ | My code ____

We plan a full day next term (date to be confirmed) at the open-air museum. Owner handwritten venue name: _____.

1 Read or hear one research card. Point to what you want to see. It still needs a venue check.

2 Choose a question: What was this used for? How is it different now? Tell or show your own idea.

3 Choose a job. Put two codes by a shared job if needed. Ask for help with any unfilled job.

Our team plan

We want to see _____ (check availability).
Our then-and-now question is _____.
Our source or check needed is _____.

Jobs and codes: navigator ____ / ____; recorder ____ / ____; photographer ____ / ____; kit lead ____ / ____. Adults keep responsibility for routes, photos and safety.

Tabletop exhibit plan: one object sketch or permitted photo, a then-and-now caption with a source, and one open question.

Finish

Show one team plan with a visit choice, question and jobs. Pitch briefly, show it or share quietly. You may pass on speaking. My own part was _____.

We plan a full day next term (date to be confirmed) at the open-air museum. Owner handwritten venue name: _____.

1 Read a research card or an adult-approved extract. Choose what your team wants to see and give a reason.

2 Write or say a then-and-now question. Mark one idea the source supports and one thing to check at the venue.

3 Agree the four jobs. Pair up to share a job or combine manageable roles. Keep each person’s own part clear.

We plan a full day next term (date to be confirmed) at the open-air museum. Owner handwritten venue name: _____.

1 Compare two research themes. Choose the stronger enquiry for a small tabletop exhibit and explain why.

2 Write an evidence question and a then-and-now comparison. Flag any claim the source cannot support.

3 Plan a compact shared route and doubled jobs. Explain how every pupil can contribute without separate walks.
