Teacher and cover plan

1. Outcome. I can present researched solar system findings clearly, credit sources and respond to an audience question with a change or a clear reason plus one transfer step.

Weekly line C41. Research and present findings about the Solar System (ICT).

2. Arrival. Retrieve the prior question, a fact in own words and a source label. Use the selected route.

3. Starter. Which start helps us follow a Solar System talk? Choose one. We will test it.

4. I do. Show the six-step claim, facts, source and audience chain.

5. We do. Choose the panel that lets an audience follow and check the science. Match all seven studio cards to their jobs.

6. You do. Give a short Solar System talk to a real audience. Hear one question. Show a useful change, or say why the work stays. Choose one next use.

7. Routes. Supported uses a three-panel frame; Independent gives a 1–2 minute briefing; Aspire defends a finding with a limit and a probing question.

8. Access. No cold calling. A pupil may pass. Offer points, signs, speech, directed objects, local slides or exact scribing.

9. TA role. Use the prompt ladder in the brief. Prompt for access and fade support. Record prompt level separately.

10. Exit. Receive the pupil response. Keep the question, change or confirmation and next use.

11. Evaluation. Record which claim, source or audience move needs a fresh start.

12. Kit, safety, evidence and timing

Kit. Use your research notes, a paper panel or school device, source labels and a way to keep the question and response.

Safety. Check content for flashing or distressing effects. Use school accounts and keep personal information private. Offer signed, spoken, pointed or exact-scribed routes and a quiet audience. Keep the same science goal.

No equipment. Use a paper poster, objects, speech, sign or audio with no personal details. An adult can write your exact words.

Evidence. Keep the slide, paper panel or witness note. Keep source labels and one audience question. Show the change, or say why the work stays and name one next use.
