Case sources

Use the case detail. A made-up case is not a real person's story.

Made-up community hall: A group shares a room for a craft club. A person needs a clear path to reach the table. A box blocks it.

A helper asks the group to keep the path clear. An adult moves the box. Another person puts shared card where each member can reach it.

These acts meet needs in this case. People may show care in different ways. We do not ask about your home or family.

community

people who share a place or link.
