A feeling and a help step

Use a book or an aid. An adult can write your words. Keep this page to read.

Story D
A young person will start a fun task. They say, “I feel excited.” Their body wants to move.

Words to use
cross · sad · worried · excited

breathe · move · tell someone · take space

A model from story A
When I feel cross I can tell someone.

In your book
Pick one story. Name the feeling. Pick a safe help step.

Start: When I feel ... I can ... .

Use the story or picked words. You need not tell us how you feel.

Or draw
Draw a story face or a help step. Point to or label the feeling and help. An adult can write the words you pick. We check the words, not the art.

More than one safe step can fit. These pairs are just examples. A step may help. It need not make the feeling go away.

Private help
Point to HELP. Ask a trusted adult in private. Use the school help route. If the adult is busy, ask another through that route. You can pass, pause and come back with help.

Read exact words back. Let the learner change them. A pass is not seen yet. Judge a feeling and safe help, not the art or the feeling itself.

If a pupil discloses, listen calmly, reassure and pass the concern to the safeguarding lead through the school’s procedure. Do not probe or promise secrecy. Keep details out of this pack and shared evidence.
