Talk to a trusted adult

Talk about a worry with a trusted adult (Time to Talk).

Use the made-up story in class. For a real worry, ask a trusted adult in private.

The story

A pupil is not sure where to put their class work. The pupil feels worried. They ask a teaching assistant for help.

In your book

Pick an adult role for the story. Pick an opener. Show what the story pupil could do if the adult is busy. Point, say or use your usual aid. A scribe can write your words and read them back.

Your try

Use the story with a teaching assistant. Your card and aids stay. Read an opener, point to one or ask the adult to voice your choice. You can watch, pass or stop.

Role play and private card

Words: talk, work, role, help

Start: In the story, they could say ... .

Model: In the story, they could say: I am not sure where my work goes.

Your next step

Keep your first try. Use one next step. Reply in the same colour, on the same page or usual mode. Do not write a real worry or adult’s name here.

Help in private

Ask for help in private. If one adult is busy, ask when to talk or try another trusted adult. You can pass and come back with help.

Use a work code, not a name. Log the story task. Keep real worries, names and roles from the private card out of this sheet. Use the school's own safe record for real concerns.

States: started with no step cues; started with step cues; try not seen this time. A step cue tells what to say next. Log speech, point, aid or exact TA voicing. If the TA reads out the pupil's chosen words, log that help. Do not call it the pupil's own speech.

No adult to choose? Give help in private. Do not press. If a pupil shares a real worry, pass it to the safeguarding lead. Use the school route. Listen and give calm support. Do not probe or promise to keep a secret. Keep real details out of this pack and shared work.

E: real work saved. R: only with Voice, Audience, one NS and a reply in the same colour, on the same page or usual mode. Offer to the Communication portfolio.
