Body words on a diagram

The diagrams and stories are not real people.

The dotted parts are inside the scrotum. They are not seen through the skin.

A young person can use these words to ask for help. No one needs to show a body part.

Cards for the fictional case

What should happen in each story? All the people are made up.

Story card	Story card
A. A young person is changing clothes. Another person knocks and waits outside.	B. A young person is using a toilet. Someone opens the closed door without asking.
C. A young person has a worry about a private body part. They tell a trusted adult.	D. Someone asks a young person to show a part under their pants and keep it secret.
E. A young person needs help to wash. A care adult explains the help, asks first and gives privacy.	F. A young person asks for help with a worry. The first adult is busy.

A choice can be spoken, pointed to, drawn or written. An adult can read the card.
