Lives, rights and choices

Tuesday 12 January 2027 | P2 | 40 minutes | Year A

Humanities | LAUNCH | Spring 1 Week 2 | HUM-LAUNCH-S1-W02

White paper version. Read quietly, point, write, type, speak privately or direct a scribe. You may pass. No public answer or reading aloud is required.

Route Supported | HUM-LAUNCH-S1-W02-E1

Learning outcome: Study the Holocaust sensitively (Holocaust Memorial Day).

1 Use S1 with private adult reading if wanted. Choose a life fact: school, friends, work, beliefs or interests.

2 Use S2 and S4. Keep each date and source code. Complete: The rule changed ____. This affected daily life because ____.

3 Use S5 and S6 to match each role to an action or inaction. Say or point to an effect. Use the frame below for your own finish.

Pair check, then your own work

Evidence Finder points to the card. Explainer links an action to an effect. Swap after one example. These are learning roles, not historical roles. Each pupil keeps their own final response.

Frames for your own record

Before persecution, Jewish people ____. In ____ in Germany, S__ shows ____. This affected ____. A perpetrator ____. A bystander ____. A rescuer ____. Remembering matters because ____.

My own finish

Keep your own record: one fact about Jewish life before persecution; two dated changes to rights with source codes and an effect; one action or inaction for each of the three roles; and one thought on remembrance and care today.

Use short notes, a small table, speech, typing or exact scribing. You may plan in any language. The quiet task is on the support cards.

Lives, rights and choices

Tuesday 12 January 2027 | P2 | 40 minutes | Year A

Humanities | LAUNCH | Spring 1 Week 2 | HUM-LAUNCH-S1-W02

White paper version. Read quietly, point, write, type, speak privately or direct a scribe. You may pass. No public answer or reading aloud is required.

Route Independent | HUM-LAUNCH-S1-W02-E1

Learning outcome: Study the Holocaust sensitively (Holocaust Memorial Day).

1 Use S1 to record a fact about Jewish life before persecution.

2 Choose two changes from S2–S4. Give the date, place, source code and an effect for each.

3 Use S5 and S6 to explain one action or inaction for each role. Keep your own brief record and closing thought.

Pair check, then your own work

Evidence Finder points to the card. Explainer links an action to an effect. Swap after one example. These are learning roles, not historical roles. Each pupil keeps their own final response.

Frames for your own record

Before persecution, Jewish people ____. In ____ in Germany, S__ shows ____. This affected ____. A perpetrator ____. A bystander ____. A rescuer ____. Remembering matters because ____.

My own finish

Keep your own record: one fact about Jewish life before persecution; two dated changes to rights with source codes and an effect; one action or inaction for each of the three roles; and one thought on remembrance and care today.

Use short notes, a small table, speech, typing or exact scribing. You may plan in any language. The quiet task is on the support cards.

Lives, rights and choices

Tuesday 12 January 2027 | P2 | 40 minutes | Year A

Humanities | LAUNCH | Spring 1 Week 2 | HUM-LAUNCH-S1-W02

White paper version. Read quietly, point, write, type, speak privately or direct a scribe. You may pass. No public answer or reading aloud is required.

Route Aspire | HUM-LAUNCH-S1-W02-E1

Learning outcome: Study the Holocaust sensitively (Holocaust Memorial Day).

1 Complete the same core record, using two changes from S2–S4 and S1 for life before persecution.

2 Use S5 and S6 to explain the three roles. Add one limit of a label: people had different power, knowledge or risks; roles could change.

3 Explain why help mattered even when it could not ensure survival. Do not infer a person's motives beyond the evidence.

Pair check, then your own work

Evidence Finder points to the card. Explainer links an action to an effect. Swap after one example. These are learning roles, not historical roles. Each pupil keeps their own final response.

Frames for your own record

Before persecution, Jewish people ____. In ____ in Germany, S__ shows ____. This affected ____. A perpetrator ____. A bystander ____. A rescuer ____. Remembering matters because ____.

My own finish

Keep your own record: one fact about Jewish life before persecution; two dated changes to rights with source codes and an effect; one action or inaction for each of the three roles; and one thought on remembrance and care today.

Use short notes, a small table, speech, typing or exact scribing. You may plan in any language. The quiet task is on the support cards.