Learning outcome: Study the Holocaust sensitively (Holocaust Memorial Day).

The Holocaust was the planned persecution and murder of six million European Jews by Nazi Germany, its allies and those who helped them. It took place from 1933 to 1945. The Nazis also persecuted and murdered millions of other people. Their experiences were not all the same.

When and where	What to know
Before persecution | S1	Jewish people had varied lives, interests, beliefs, families and hopes.
7 April 1933 | Germany | S2	A law began removing Jews from state jobs. Early exceptions existed.
15 September 1935 and later rules | Germany | S3	Nuremberg Laws took away citizenship and political rights.
November 1938 | Germany | S4	Jewish pupils were barred from public schools.
1942–1944 | Amsterdam | S6	Miep Gies and other helpers supported people in hiding.

Be precise and respectful

Perpetrators caused harm. Bystanders did not directly act, but their choices varied. Rescuers helped, often at risk. Roles could change; responsibility was not equal.

Holocaust Memorial Day is 27 January. We learn on 12 January. We remember people’s lives and consider our responsibility to treat people with dignity.
