Knowledge organiser for protest and rights

Friday 8 January 2027 | P2 | 40 minutes | Year A

Humanities | GROW | Spring 1 Week 1 | HUM-GROW-S1-W01

Learning outcome: Place key protest/rights events on a timeline (chronology).

Chronology means time order. Compare the year first. If the years match, compare months, then days.

Date	Event and place
6 February 1918	Votes for some women | UK
5 December 1955	Bus boycott starts | United States
28 August 1963	March on Washington | United States
2 July 1964	Civil Rights Act | United States
6 August 1965	Voting Rights Act | United States

Three things to remember

Some women gained the vote in 1918. The law still left many women out. The boycott and march were protests. The 1964 and 1965 events were changes in US law. Laws still needed action to make them work.

Your strip

Put all five pairs from earliest to latest. Use one date to explain a place. Equal boxes show order, not equal time gaps.

These are five selected events from the UK and the United States. They are not the full story of rights.

Where this leads: people who work in museums use dates to put events in order.

Teacher-written factual summaries for learning. These are not historical quotations, testimony or archive extracts.
