Teacher answers · Arrival

Arrival · Supported

Point to the picture that matches the top one.

The left picture is the same as the top one.

Arrival · Supported

Do we take time to think of the past when we remember?

Yes. We think of people and events from the past.

Arrival · Supported

What can the poppy stand for?

It can stand for hope for peace.

Arrival · Supported

Do you have to wear a poppy to show care?

No. It is a choice.

Arrival · Independent

Point to the picture that matches the top one.

The left picture is the same as the top one.

Arrival · Independent

What does remembrance mean?

It means taking time to think of people and events from the past.

Made by Matt

Arrival · Independent

Why might people think of those hurt by war?

They can show care and learn from the past.

Arrival · Independent

What helps a short line show care?

Use true words and a card label.

Arrival · Aspire

Point to the picture that matches the top one.

The left picture is the same as the top one.

Arrival · Aspire

What does peace mean?

It means life without fighting.

Arrival · Aspire

What can card A tell us about a poppy?

It can show hope for peace and care for people hurt by war.

Arrival · Aspire

What can card B tell us about choice?

People show care in more than one way.

Made by Matt

Teacher answers · Starter

Starter

What can help a group feel welcome?

Make a calm place. Give people room and a choice.

Starter

Which picture shows a poppy?

Picture A shows a red poppy.

Starter

What can the poppy stand for?

It can stand for remembrance and hope for peace.

Starter

Can quiet words show care too?

Yes. A line can help us think of people and hope for peace.

I do · 1

Who might we think of?

People whose lives were touched by war.

I do · 1

Why might we do this?

We can show care and learn from the past.

Made by Matt

I do · 2

Which card tells us about the poppy?

Card A tells us what a red poppy can mean.

I do · 2

What is one fact?

A poppy can show hope for peace.

I do · 3

What line could I use?

We think of people hurt by war. We hope for peace.

I do · 3

What label can I add?

Add card A for the link to peace. Card C gives a sample line.

I do · 4

How can we show care in our words?

Use true words and keep the card label.

I do · 4

Do we need to make up a life story?

No. A calm sign or short line can show care.

Made by Matt

Teacher answers · We do

We do

Which card backs up a poppy sign?

Card A. It says a poppy can show hope for peace.

We do

Which card has a quiet line?

Card C. It gives words about care and peace.

We do

What can a card label do?

It helps us find and check the fact.

We do

Which card says we can choose?

Card B. It says a poppy is a choice.

We do

How could a person show care in a quiet way?

They could listen, learn, draw a sign or use a short line.

We do decision checkpoint

Which choice fits card B?

Both can show care. People can choose a way to remember.

Made by Matt

We do decision checkpoint

What clue helps us check?

Card B says wearing a poppy is a choice. Card C shows a quiet way to use words.

Made by Matt

Teacher answers · You do

You do · Supported

Check one fact.

A poppy can show hope for peace. Use card A.

You do · Supported

Check one reason.

You could choose peace to show hope for an end to war.

You do · Independent

Check the card label.

Use A for a fact on the poppy, B for choice or C for a sample line.

You do · Independent

Check why your sign or word fits.

A sign or word can help us show care or hope for peace.

You do · Aspire

Check two ways to show care.

A poppy and quiet words are two ways.

You do · Aspire

Why might people choose in different ways?

Each person can choose a way that feels right to them.

Made by Matt

Teacher answers · You do · continued

You do · Choice

Check your fact and card.

Find one true detail and show the card it came from.

You do · Choice

Check your reason.

Show how your sign or words link to care, memory or peace.

Made by Matt

Teacher answers · Review

Review and improve

Have I used a true detail?

Find the same idea in a card.

Review and improve

Have I shown where it came from?

Put the card label by your fact.

Review and improve

Can I make one small change?

Check a word or sign. Edit in the same colour, on the same page.

Exit · Supported

Why might people think of those hurt by war?

To show care, learn or hope for peace.

Exit · Supported

What helps a short line show care?

True words and a card label.

Exit · Independent

Give one reason why people remember.

They may show care for lives touched by war or learn from the past.

Made by Matt

Exit · Independent

What helps make a good caption?

True words, a card label and care for the people it is about.

Exit · Aspire

Why might people choose more than one way to remember?

People can show care in ways that feel right for them.

Exit · Aspire

What can a short caption say with care?

It can give a fact and card label, or a calm thought about peace.

Exit · Choice

Show or say one reason why people remember.

Accept a reason linked to care, the past or peace.

Exit · Choice

Show one thing that helps us check a caption.

Accept a true detail or its card label.

Made by Matt

Aspire accepted answers

What can this sign mean?

A poppy can show remembrance of those hurt by war, hope for peace or care for people who serve. Accept a different sign if the pupil explains how it shows care.

Which card backs up the fact?

Accept the card that supports the stated fact. Card A backs up what a red poppy can mean. Card B backs up the choice to wear one or show care another way.

How do the words show care?

They speak kindly about those hurt by war or express hope for peace. Accept another reason linked to the pupil’s words.

Can both show care?

Yes. A calm sign and kind words can both show care. Accept other examples linked to the cards. The pupil can answer in private.

Made by Matt