What helped you most today, or what would you change next time?

Point, speak, sign, draw, write or choose. You may pass.

Read or scribe the pupil’s own words. Record actual support and one work reference.

Guidance.

This is learning about religion and worldviews. Nobody must share beliefs, family details or experiences. Use the supplied story cards and allow a pass. Do not rank celebrations or say all followers practise alike. Drawings are simplified cues. No flames, ritual participation or required personal disclosure.

Formative practice. Record actual actions, support and gaps.

Accept the pupil’s own example or a pass. Record their own words and actual support.

Preparation and safety.

Prepare the four story cards and six practice cards. Use drawings or unlit objects only. No flames. Read aloud without asking for personal beliefs. Do not turn the task into worship or role-play.

Teaching script 1.

Arrival · 4 min.

Invite a private regulation check. Green · Ready, Amber · Help, Red · Pause. Return to learning: quiet pause, usual aid, one short task, then rejoin at the current step. Offer a quiet start, usual aid or pass. Use the cue and accept the pupil’s usual communication mode.

Starter · 3 min.

Starter question 1 revisits last week. Take one minute for recall and reveal. What do Diwali and Hanukkah both use? Cue: Both · light. Expected: Both feasts use light, such as lamps or candles. Then ask: Which part comes first in the story? Expected: Rama and Sita leave home to live in the woods. Use the four story cards. You need not share a belief.

Teaching script 2.

I do · 5 min.

Put the story cards in order. Find the first part of the story. Put the next parts in the right order. Link the lamps to the end of the story. First, Rama and Sita go to the woods. Last, rows of lamps light the way home. Use First, Next, Then and Last. This is a short classroom story. Not all people celebrate in the same way.

We do · 8 min.

Which card comes last in the story? Ask for a choice and a reason before revealing. B. Rows of lamps welcome Rama and Sita home at the end. Why must the rescue come before the walk home?

Teaching script 3.

You do · 13 min.

Read the four story cards before ordering. An authored summary is a short classroom retelling, not the whole tradition. Support reading and exact scribing without choosing the order. Accept an ordered sequence backed by the story cards. In your book, put the story cards in order. Use First, Next, Then and Last as labels. Write Last is __. Say why lamps are lit. Supported route. Put three cards in order with help. Write First is __ and Last is __. Independent route. Put all four story cards in order. Use First, Next, Then and Last. Aspire challenge: Put the cards in order and retell. Say why lamps are lit at the end. Choice route. Pick a route and a way to reply. Show the story order from start to end.

Teaching script 4.

Review · 4 min.

Check your card order. Add why lamps are lit at the end. Optional. Respond to feedback with an adult. You may pass. Mark R only after the pupil has responded to feedback with an adult. Keep the first response and any change separate. Edit in the same colour, on the same page or usual mode.

Exit · 3 min.

Ask the two route checks. What helped you most today, or what would you change next time? Point, speak, sign, draw, write or choose. You may pass. Accept the pupil’s own example or a pass. Record their own words and actual support. At check-out, record E for … against the pupil's target.

Teacher answers.
