Weekly outcome

Sequence a short drama with a group.

Today I can

I can show the start, change and end.

I can use my part or cue.

I can keep my own choice in my arts log.

Words for this lesson pose: A shape you hold still.

cue: A sign to start or stop.

order: What comes first, next and last.

role: The part you do in a group.

Working safely

Use a made-up story. Keep your own space. Stop on the open hand. You can sit, stay silent or direct. You may share with just the adult.

Choose a route

Supported

Use the three story parts.

Pick a role with the adult.

Choose one pose or cue.

Try the three parts with help.

Tell or point to your own choice.

Independent

Agree your role and one idea.

Make the start, change and end.

Use one cue for each part.

Try twice and keep the order.

Keep your own choice in your arts log.

Aspire

Use the same three-part task.

Test a spoken cue and a silent cue.

Choose which helps the order most.

Say why and keep that choice.

Model step 1

Point wide. Say: We want a den. Hold for three counts.

Model step 2

Hands close. Pause. Say: The space is small.

Model step 3

Ask: Can we change it? Make a small roof with hands.

Model step 4

Point to the three parts. Say: Start, change, end. I kept that order.

Now make your own

Choose your role. Try a short scene. Change one thing.

The adult model is an example. Your arts log must show your real choice.

The new den with still pictures

The group point at a big space. Next they show a small space with their hands. Last they point to a new small den. They hold each pose for three counts.

What comes first? What comes last?

How can a still pose show the change?

The new den with a voice cue

A voice says Start, Next, End. The group make one pose at each cue. In the middle a helper says, Can we change it? The group point to a new plan.

Which word helps the group change pose?

Which cue could help our group?

Make your own choice

I notice ___.

I could use ___ in my own scene because ___.

These are invented class models. They are not pupil work.
