Lesson

Refine our story for the show

Year A · Explore · Theme Resilience & Change

Scheme outcome

Rehearse and refine our performance.

Today I can

I can rehearse the three parts.

I can test one change from a real comment.

I can name my role and next step for the show.

Prepare

For three or four pupils: books or arts logs and pencils.

Available story plan and actual feedback from Monday; use a fresh trial if they are missing.

Clear personal spaces or chairs for hand poses. All props and the den are imagined.

Keep the final rehearsal plan, accessible roles, cues and individual logs for next week.

Cover route

Use the real Monday feedback when present. If absent, give the den story a fresh baseline trial and ask a class or staff watcher for one comment. Model changing the facing of a pose. Pupils rehearse one revision, check its effect and agree accessible roles and cues for next week. Keep performance and review as future actions. Follow the 40-minute timings and safe three-second freeze limit.

Drama teaching sequence

Arrival 3 minutes

Say: Yesterday's real note can help us choose today's target. If it is missing or we were absent, we make a new short trial and get feedback today. You can act, work seated, stay silent or direct. We will agree an accessible role for next week.

Look for: Learner has a genuine target source or a fresh route; no attendance or feedback is assumed.

Fallback: Use the den story and a seated staff-watched rehearsal. Record today's contribution only.

Check and response: A fresh watcher comment is valid. Never guess yesterday's words or backdate a record.

Starter 3 minutes

Say: Read only a comment that was actually made. A note such as I could not see the end points to a clear target. The group still chooses what to change. We can turn the end pose towards the watcher, then test it.

Look for: Pupil links one actual comment to a manageable rehearsal target.

Fallback: Give two choices after reading the real note: change the cue, or turn the pose. Let the pupil choose.

Check and response: If the viewer missed the ending, a clearer final pose may help. If no comment exists, do the short baseline trial now.

I do 6 minutes

Say: I show the small-roof ending facing away. I ask the watcher what they could see and use their actual reply. I turn the same pose towards them, without moving closer, then try again. A still pose lasts at most three comfortable seconds with normal breathing. I ask whether the roof is now clear.

Look for: Adult models a feedback-led change and checks its effect without changing the entire story.

Fallback: Show the hand pose seated. Pupil directs the angle with a point; adult does not reposition the pupil's body.

Check and response: The changed feature is facing. Ask: What stayed the same? The roof pose and story order stay the same. If unclear, show the two endings once more.

We do 6 minutes

Say: Use the chosen target and rehearse the full three parts. Invite a learner to give the cue. If a watcher still cannot follow first and last, return to those parts slowly. Keep the real response and do not call every trial a success.

Look for: Group tests a feedback-led target and agrees cues that every role can use.

Fallback: Adult supports the first cue, then returns the next cue or pose decision to the learner.

Check and response: If the watcher follows the start and end, keep the useful change and check cues. If not, revisit one transition rather than adding new dialogue. This is the hinge decision.

Create 14 minutes

Say: Use the real den sequence or a fresh three-part version. Try the chosen change and gather one specific response. Next week the audience is the class and invited staff only. Agree a speaking, seated, silent or directing role; a private staff rehearsal remains available. Do not promise or record a performance that has not happened.

Look for: Each learner refines a real contribution, checks feedback and has a provisional accessible role and cue for next week.

Fallback: Pupil directs a seated adult trial and chooses a cue or angle. Record the creative decision and agreed future role without claiming future performance.

Check and response: Example only: We turned the last pose so the watcher saw the small den. I will give the start cue next week. If a role is undecided, record that and agree a choice privately later.

Review 5 minutes

Say: Read the learner's note back. Check role, cue and actual response separately. This is preparation for next week's performance and review. In the last two minutes, relax and store the plan and logs safely.

Look for: Group knows what to keep, what remains unfinished and how each learner can take part next week.

Fallback: Use a quiet one-to-one check: point to role, point to start cue, confirm next step.

Check and response: A ready plan states the three parts, roles and cues. It does not prove that the future show or review has already happened.

Drama evidence and teaching checks

Creative Arts · BUILD · Spring 2 Week 4 · Tuesday 16 March 2027 · P1

Exit 3 minutes

Say: Keep your own words about the rehearsal today. I can scribe and read them back. Record a real next step. We have rehearsed and refined; we will perform and review next week.

Look for: Log records actual feedback, tested revision, its effect and a future role or next decision.

Fallback: Scribe a short confirmed phrase. A gesture can show which pose changed.

Check: Example only: The viewer missed the roof. I turned my hands. They saw it then. Next time I will wait for the final cue.

Evidence and review

Keep the available earlier plan with its original date, a new dated rehearsal note, the actual feedback and each learner's confirmed choice and reason. Show the part before and after a change when possible. Record support and any unfinished work honestly. Fresh work is dated today. A photograph or recording is optional under local consent procedures and is not needed.

Misconceptions

A comment means we must copy the watcher's idea - The makers choose one useful change and test it.

Rehearsing now proves we performed next week - Date today's rehearsal today. Keep next week's performance as a plan.

Ready means every pupil must speak - Agree acting, seated, silent or directing roles with clear cues.

Questions

foundation: Which part will we try again?

middle: What one thing did we change?

higher: What did the watcher see that helps us judge the change?

Drama access and safety

Creative Arts · BUILD · Spring 2 Week 4 · Tuesday 16 March 2027 · P1

Safety

Keep a clear personal space. Walk only; no running, lifting, falls, climbing, throws or contact. Props and scenery are imagined. Use an agreed open-hand stop cue. A freeze lasts at most three comfortable seconds, with normal breathing, then relax. Seated and hand-only versions are equal options.

Emotional and sensory access

Use invented situations and role labels. Offer actor, seated performer, silent performer or director. No forced speech, public performance, eye contact, personal account or touch. Agree a calm space, stop cue and return cue. A rehearsal may be shared privately with a trusted member of staff.

Planned adaptations

Cognition And Learning: Keep three BUILD parts or four GROW beats visible in a book or cue note. Rehearse once before changing one thing. Read one feedback point, model the first step only, then return the choice to the learner.

Communication And Interaction: Use short cue words or point to a cue word. Reserve the open hand for Stop. Offer pointing, signing, a seated gesture, silent acting, directing or an adult scribe. Give processing time. Use We changed ... because ... .

Semh: Use the familiar invented scene when available and offer an honest fresh route. Agree roles and audience privately. A pause, smaller movement, role change or private staff rehearsal is valid. Do not measure confidence or require disclosure.

Sensory And Physical: Use a chair or hands only. Agree safe space and a quiet cue. Keep voices at talking level. No touch or surprise sounds. A still pose lasts only up to three comfortable seconds while breathing normally.

Eal: Plan in any language. Link each cue word to a gesture. Allow oral rehearsal before a short log. Check meaning, sequence and the learner's intended change rather than accent or spelling.

The award and evidence

Both pathways work at Explore. The optional GROW next level stretch adds evidence for later review. This is rehearsal and refinement; next week is performance and review. These lessons do not complete or certify the award.

Resilience can include pausing, asking for help, changing a plan and trying a manageable next step. It does not mean hiding feelings, tolerating harm or continuing through pain.
