Scheme outcome

Perform our drama (World Book Day link).

Today I can

I can use a start and end cue.

I can share or direct my real part.

I can log what I did and who saw it.

Words for this lesson

story: A made-up set of events.

cue: A sign to start or stop.

audience: The people who watch or listen.

role: Your part in a story.

Working safely

Use a made-up story. Keep your own space. Stop on the open hand. You can sit, stay silent or direct. You may share with just the adult.

Choose a route

Supported

Pick a role or direct the adult.

Use first, next and last hand pictures.

Share with one class member or invited staff member.

Tell or show your real part.

Independent

Use our real three-part story plan.

Share your part with clear start and end cues.

Ask one watcher what they noticed.

Log what you did, who watched and your choice.

Aspire

Do the same core share.

Make the change and new plan clear.

Use a calm cue to help the group.

Explain one choice and keep real feedback.

Drama activity cards

Model step 1

Point wide. Say: We want a den. Give a calm start cue.

Model step 2

Bring hands close. Say: The space is small. Hold for three comfortable counts.

Model step 3

Make a small roof with hands. Say: We can make a small den.

Model step 4

Give an end cue and relax. Ask a real watcher to name one feature.

Your own task

Use the safe plan you agreed. Share with the class and invited staff only.

Show your real role. Keep a note of what you did.

The adult model is an example. Your arts log must show your real choice.

Compare two performance examples

The new den with hand pictures

First the group point to a big space. Next they show that the space is small. Last they make a small roof with their hands. A hand cue helps them hold each picture for three counts.

What comes first? What comes last?

Which cue could help us share our story?

The new den with short lines

One voice says, We want a den. Next a voice says, The space is small. Last a voice says, We can make a small den. Each person stays in their own space.

Which line tells us the change?

Would you use a voice, a hand cue or both? Why?

Make your own choice

I notice ___.

I could use ___ in my own scene because ___.

These are invented class models. They are not pupil work.
