BUILD Careers · Spring 2 Week 1 · Shared resource

All workers and workplaces are made up. Use these cards to help. Put your work in your book, point, tell an adult or use Type instead.

Card A The agreed task

A worker agrees to put the clean cups away. The worker does the task and tells the team it is done.

Which work skill does this show?

Use: reliability · communication · effort · safety

Card B The unclear task

A worker in a made-up packing room is not sure which box to use. The worker asks, 'Which box shall I use?'

Choose your route

Supported

In your book: match all four word cards to the four action cards. Point or tell an adult. Add one action for each word; an adult may scribe your words.

Independent

In your book: write the four work words. Give one short action for each. Use the word bank if you need it.

Aspire

In your book: name all four work skills and give an action for each. Then choose a new job task. Show how two skills can help at the same time.

A model to keep

A worker in a made-up shop agrees to sort ten paper bags. The worker sorts the bags, then says, 'The bags are ready.'

I look for what the worker agreed to do. The worker did that task. This shows reliability. The clear message also shows communication.

You can ask for help. You do not need to tell a true story from your life.

Ask a trusted adult for a private talk. Point to HELP, write or use your aid. You may pass, pause and return with help. No personal story is needed.
