Workplace support cards

Tuesday 16 March 2027 · P3 · 40 minutes · Year A

BUILD Careers · Spring 2 Week 4 · Shared resource

All workers and workplaces are made up. Use these cards to help. Put your work in your book, point, tell an adult or use Type instead.

Card A Scene 1

Two workers think the boxes go in different places.

What could one worker say? Choose: Can we check the task? / You are silly!

Use: respect · disagree · boundary · team

Card B Scene 2

A colleague stands too close. The worker needs more space.

What could the worker say and do?

Use: respect · disagree · boundary · team

More workplace cards

Card C Scene 3

A colleague asks a worker to use a tool. The worker has not been shown how.

What is a safe, respectful reply? Choose: I have not been shown how. Let us ask for help. / I will guess.

Use: respect · disagree · boundary · team

Card D Scene 4

One worker wants to pack first. Another wants to count first. Both speak at once.

What could help the team?

Use: respect · disagree · boundary · team

Choose your route

Supported

Choose a respectful reply for scene 1. Choose a clear limit for scene 3. Say or copy one reply. Point to the person who could help. Words: pause · check · space · help · lead worker Start: I think ___. Can we check? I have not been shown how. Please can you help? Please give me some space.

Independent

In your book, choose a helpful reply for each scene. Write one respectful disagreement. Write one clear limit. Say when a worker should ask for help.

Aspire

Complete the Independent task. Write two respectful replies for scene 4. Choose the better reply and say why. Explain why respect can include saying no.

A model to keep

Two workers disagree about where a box belongs.

Pause and take one slow breath if it helps. Say: 'I think the box goes on the shelf.' Ask: 'Can we check the task together?' If they still cannot agree, ask the lead worker for help.

You can ask for help. You do not need to tell a true story from your life.

Ask a trusted adult for a private talk. Point to HELP, write or use your aid. You may pass, pause and return with help. No personal story is needed.
