Story and sequence answers

Order 1: both pupils want one blue pen. Order 2: one uses it while the other waits. Order 3: the next pupil has a turn and an adult supplies a thick grip. Order 4: both have added a mark. The drawing sequence is a fictional model, never a record of actual pupils.

Fairness meaning

The fair plan gives each pupil access to the drawing task. Both have a turn; one needs extra help to use the pen. Equal access need not mean identical equipment or adult support. Do not imply that support must be earned by waiting or behaviour.

Starter and hinge

Starter B: both have a turn. I do check picture 3: the next pupil draws with the grip. Hinge B: both have a turn and the help they need. Parallel hinge A: let both add a mark. An explanation may be a point to pictures 3 and 4 plus the phrase both have a turn. If unsure, reread the matching story lines, model one step and return the choice.

Valid responses

Accept a line such as It is fair. Both have a turn; Both can draw; The grip helps the next pupil draw. Accept a pupil-directed selected phrase or exact scribed line and record that mode. A repeated adult model without an independent choice is supported practice; check a further private choice before confirming understanding.

Reading and access

Record read, listened or read with help separately. Listening can show story understanding but does not establish independent decoding. Do not require public reading, cold calling or personal stories. Keep the word bank, starter and model visible on every task and route.

Prompts and exact scribing

1 Point to the place or instruction. 2 Ask a short private question. 3 Rephrase. 4 Give a scaffold or two choices. 5 Model the first step only and return the task. Pupil chooses or directs the line; adult writes exact words, reads back quietly, and asks Keep or change? Record the actual prompt and any adult-supplied content.

Private participation check

Code	Fair action and own line	Actual mode or help
Pupil number: ____	_____	_____
Pupil number: ____	_____	_____
Pupil number: ____	_____	_____
Pupil number: ____	_____	_____

Use the fourth pupil-number field only if present. Leave absence and unknown outcomes blank. Finish includes story order, a fair action and one line through the usual supported response. The pictures can stay visible.

Feedback and evidence

Keep Voice and the actual audience reply, set one NS, and retain the pupil's response in the same colour, on the same page or usual mode before R. E follows actual banking. Offer the authentic response to the Communication portfolio. Staff check the qualification and evidence record separately. No completion claim is made.

Next teaching decision

If choice and picture support are secure, reduce adult sentence completion next time. If sequence is unsure, reread two adjacent pictures, rebuild the four-picture order and check privately. Later scheme rows will be supplied by the owner.
