Card answers

A is fair. It is fair because both have a turn.

B is unfair. It is unfair because one has no paper.

C is fair. It is fair because the grip helps one pupil join.

D is unfair. It is unfair because one has no say.

Fair changes

B: give the other pupil a sheet so both can draw. D: let each pupil offer an idea, by speech, pointing or a card. A change must solve the stated access or voice problem. Do not require each pupil to use identical resources.

Starter and hinge

Starter A: both get paper and can draw. I do check B: one has no paper. Hinge C is fair because the grip gives access. Parallel hinge: a larger pen so both can draw is fair. If the reason is unsure, compare the printed card facts privately and return the choice after one modelled step.

What counts

Look for an own A/C fair, B/D unfair sort and a reason for at least one in each group. A selected because-phrase or exact scribed sentence counts with that mode recorded. Copying the model alone is supported practice; check another card. Accept a sensible request for more detail, then restate the card facts.

Reading and access

Record read, listened or read with help separately. Listening can show understanding but not independent decoding. Keep word bank, both starters and worked model visible on every task/route. No public questions, cold calling, required reading aloud or personal disclosure.

Prompts and exact scribing

1 Point to the card or instruction. 2 Ask a short private question. 3 Rephrase. 4 Give two choices or a scaffold. 5 Model the first step only and return the task. Pupil chooses the category and reason; adult writes exact words or selected phrases, reads back privately, and asks Keep or change? Record actual help.

Private participation check

Code	Own sort and reasons	Actual mode or help
Pupil number: ____	_____	_____
Pupil number: ____	_____	_____
Pupil number: ____	_____	_____
Pupil number: ____	_____	_____

Use the fourth pupil-number field only if present. Leave absent and unknown outcomes blank. Do not infer a pupil's character or real experience from card choices.

Feedback and evidence

Retain Voice and the actual audience reply, one NS and the pupil's response in the same colour, on the same page or usual mode before R. E follows actual banking. Offer authentic reasons to the Communication portfolio. Staff check the qualification and evidence record separately; no completion claim is made.

Next teaching decision

If the sort is secure, fade adult sentence completion and check a different scenario. If different help is called unfair, revisit C and the access it provides. Later scheme rows will be supplied by the owner.
