Tuesday 23 March 2027, P5

My respectful view and reflection page task

White standard print

Express a simple personal view respectfully. Make a reflection page; evidence for the unit award.

In your book, speak, point or ask for a scribe. Choose a route with an adult.

Supported route

1 Choose question A or B with an adult. Point to or say your own view using I think ____.

2 Choose one learning idea after a short reread.

3 Make a reflection page in your book with a drawing, words or a scribe. Add your view and the learning idea.

An adult can read one step at a time. Ask for two choices or a reread.

Words to help

I think ____.

You may pass, take an agreed quiet pause and return to one short task.

Independent route

1 Choose a question and express your own view with kind words.

2 Make a reflection page in your book. Include one learning idea and your view.

3 Add a kind action or small next step. Check your page with an adult.

Words to help

One thing we learnt was ____. My view is ____.

You may pass, take an agreed quiet pause and return to one short task.

Aspire route

1 Express your own respectful view and give a reason.

2 Make a reflection page with an accurate learning idea, your view and a kind action.

3 Show how someone could have a different view. Use a calm phrase to respond.

Words to help

I think ____ because ____. A different respectful view could be ____.

You may pass, take an agreed quiet pause and return to one short task.

Half term task

1 Week 1

Listen to this short reread: In the Christian Easter story, some women found the tomb empty. They heard that Jesus was alive. Point to or tell one thing you heard.

2 Week 2

A made-up pupil joins a new group and hopes for a kind partner. What might they feel? What do they hope for?

3 Week 3

Reread: Easter in Christianity celebrates Jesus rising from death. Rosh Hashanah in Judaism marks the Jewish new year. Both can link with hope. Show one shared idea and one difference.

Half term task continued

4 Week 4

A pupil is not sure where to sit. Take a short time to think. What kind action could help? You may look, point, speak, draw or use a scribe. You can pass.

5 Week 5 part one

Choose a view question. Is it helpful to ask before helping? Or can a small first step help with a new start? Express your own view with kind words, a point, a drawing or a scribe.

6 Week 5 part two

Make your reflection page in your book or on plain paper. Show your own view and one learning idea. You can draw, write or ask for a scribe. Add a kind action or next step if you can.

Use dated earlier work where it fits. Complete the agreed missing prompts today. Respond in your book, speak, point with explanation or ask for a scribe. An adult records the help used and arranges a follow-up for any gaps.