Sikh seva and langar task

Pink supported print

Use subject vocabulary to describe a practice.

In your book, speak, point or ask for a scribe. Choose a route with an adult.

Supported route

1 Hear the short langar card. Choose langar, seva and equality to complete three spoken sentences. Point to a card showing who is welcome. Tell an adult how serving people could show service or equal worth.

2 The free meal is called ____. Helping others can be ____. Welcoming all can show ____.

An adult can read one step at a time. Ask for two choices or a reread.

Words to help

____ means ____. At langar, ____.

You may pass, take an agreed quiet pause and return to one short task.

Independent route

1 In your book, describe langar in three or four sentences. Use at least three of the subject words. Include what volunteers do, who is welcome and how the practice expresses a belief or value.

2 Use the vocabulary mat to check meaning. Explain one link using because or shows.

Words to help

Volunteers may ____ as seva. This can express equality because ____.

You may pass, take an agreed quiet pause and return to one short task.

Aspire route

1 Describe langar using at least four subject words. Explain how both the free meal and suitable seating can express equality. Correct the claim that equal worth means everyone must sit in the same way.

2 Write a short description and a reasoned correction in your book.

Words to help

The practice of ____ expresses ____ through ____. Equal worth can include ____.

You may pass, take an agreed quiet pause and return to one short task.
