TA studio brief — One symbol, many ways

Pathway: BASE · Week 1 Part 1 · Big question: How can we draw one shape in four new ways?

TA practical setup & focus

Keep thick card templates ready for the Supported route and half-fill ink pots in spill trays.

Studio kit: Four-box grid sheet, soft pencil, black pen, wax crayon, brush and ink pot

Key words to prompt

- line: A mark that moves from one spot to the next.
- tone: How light or dark a mark looks on the page.
- shape: An flat area with a clear edge around it.
- bold: Thick, dark, and easy to see from far off.
- grid: Neat boxes on a page for your art tests.

Supported route steps

1. Pick one card shape (star, leaf, wave, or shield).
2. Trace the shape in all four boxes on your sheet.
3. Fill box 1 with pencil lines. Box 2 with dark wax.
4. Fill box 3 with pen dots. Box 4 with a brush stripe.

Check: All four boxes show your shape with four new marks.

Review & exit support

Exit question: Which word means how light or dark a mark looks?

Staff note: Staff preparation only: review a short studio demonstration of four-box mark-making. First the lesson.
