TA studio brief — Build the studio brief

Pathway: BASE · Week 4 Part 2 · Big question: How do we plan our relief panel with three clear choices?

TA practical setup & focus

Keep each pupil's Week 1-3 samples on their desk so they can point directly to the textures they want to include.

Studio kit: Week 1-3 work samples, studio plan templates, frame shape cards, coloured pencils, black markers

Key words to prompt

- brief: A clear plan that says what you will make and use.
- plan: A simple map drawing made. First you cut real card.
- choice: Picking the best shape and texture for your panel.
- palette: The two or three colours you pick for your artwork.
- label: A word with a line pointing to a part of your plan.

Supported route steps

1. Circle your chosen shape, two textures,. Two colours on the brief strip.
2. Trace a frame frame into the big plan box.
3. Draw stripes where ridged card will go. Dots where foil will go.

4. Match two pre-printed label words ('foil'. 'ridges') with straight lines.

Check: Three choices circled and a clearly labelled plan drawing.

Review & exit support

Exit question: What is a studio brief in art?

Staff note: Staff preparation only: review a short walkthrough of turning texture samples into a labelled three-choice studio brief.
