Book strip.

Today I can.

- I can spot a big question.
- I can join a view to a reason with because.
- I can respect a different view.

RE · BUILD · Autumn 2 · Week 6 · RE_BUILD_A2_W06.

Starter · all routes.

1. What two things can a red poppy stand for?

Cue · Memory · hope.

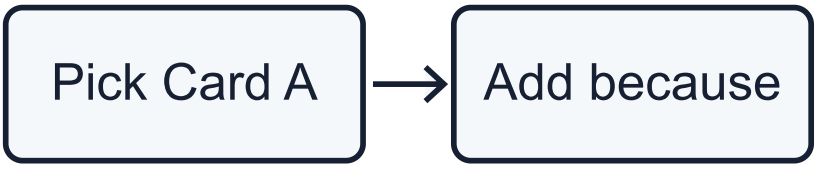

2. Which word joins a view to its reason?

1. In your book, pick one big question.
2. Write I think __ because __.
3. Check that your answer gives a clear reason.

Point, speak, sign, draw, write or choose. You may pass.

Four big-question cards.

- Card A (Questions): What makes a thing special? Why do people keep feasts? What gives hope?
- Card B (Weak): “It is special just because.” This has no reason.
- Card C (Strong): “A card is special because a kind friend made it.”
- Card D (Views): People can hold two views. Both can give a clear reason.

You can use a class example. You need not share a belief.

Use these headings in your book.

- Big question I chose.
- My view.
- My reason with because.
- How I improved a weak answer.
- A second view and reason.
- My check.

Six practice cards.

Card.	Read the card.
A.	What makes something special? Why do people celebrate? What helps people feel hope?
B.	“Things are special just because.”
C.	“A photo is special because the memory matters more than the price.”
D.	“Festivals matter because they bring families and friends together.”
E.	One person says light reminds them of faith; another says it brings people together.
F.	People within the same group can still give different reasons.

What clue helps you decide?
