Scheme of work

BUILD_A1_W01; My family my community and special people; SOW page 3

Exact outcome: Talk about family and people special to me.

Teaching and application: Model an inclusive people map. Together match people to caring actions; independently add a chosen person using symbols or a sentence. Allow a fictional example without personal disclosure.

Assessment evidence: F: people map and one reason the person matters.

Forty minute sequence

Time	Stage
0–4	Arrival route
4–7	Starter and visual enquiry
7–13	Explicit model and optional captioned film
13–20	Shared interactive activity
20–22	Method check
22–34	Independent application
34–37	Review and improve
37–40	Two exit questions

Access and assessment

Use one-step instructions, symbols and a model first. Offer talk, point, draw, type or write. Reduce the number of choices; extend by asking for a reason or a second example. Adults prompt the first response then fade support.

Routes are flexible. Check the learner can begin within two minutes. Use reading, typing, exact scribing or oral responses without lowering the Humanities thinking. Fade prompts. Record what was independent. For a summative outcome, rehearse on a practice example and keep the final response individual.

Teacher answers and scaffolding

Core and exit answers

Sam explained choices and showed a quiet space, helping Alex join in with support.

No. A fictional person is a complete response.

Shared task feedback

Sam explains the choices → Care. Alex knows what can happen next.

Sam refuses to explain → Needs changing. Alex still needs clear information.

Alex chooses a quiet table → Choice. The choice can help Alex participate.

Arrival answers

Supported: 1. A: the library books. 2. Sam explained choices and showed a quiet space, helping Alex join in with support. 3. An action that meets a need 4. No. A fictional person is a complete response.

Standard: 1. A: the library books. 2. Sam explained choices and showed a quiet space, helping Alex join in with support. 3. An action that meets a need Accept a relevant example. 4. No. A fictional person is a complete response.

Stretch: 1. A: the library books. It cannot establish a real person's whole experience or belief. 2. Sam explained choices and showed a quiet space, helping Alex join in with support. 3. An action that meets a need Accept a supported connection. 4. No. A fictional person is a complete response.

Stage scaffolding

Starter, model and shared task: Read two cards aloud and point to the matching action. Match each item, then explain how it meets the need.

Further challenge: Test an alternative match and explain when it could work.

Review: check the exact required outcome before improving presentation. Retain first and revised responses when useful.

UAS mapping before submission

The scheme provides no approved unit codes. The centre must select the exact unit and check every requirement. These resources prepare evidence; task completion does not establish an award.

Calendar and editing

Schedule Black History Month, remembrance, Human Rights Day, Holocaust Memorial Day and International Women's Day against the school calendar. The SOW sequence controls week numbering. Word text and tables are editable; HTML is the editable lesson source. Recheck layout and keep source details and answers aligned after changes.
