

Contributions and respect

Knowledge organiser

Learning goal

Show respect for similarities and differences linked to Black History Month.

Enquiry

Who helps us belong to a community?

Word	Meaning
source	Something we use to find out
contribution	Something a person adds or does
respect	Treat people with dignity
evidence	Information supporting an answer

Key knowledge

That he was paid as a trumpeter at the English court in 1507.

No. A payment record does not reveal his whole life.

A frame to use

The source says _____. This person contributed _____. We can show respect by _____.

Remember

Race does not determine interests, abilities or identity. Study named people through evidence; nobody needs to explain their own background.

Supported arrival

Begin with questions 1 and 2. Continue when ready. Choose one route; reading, pointing and exact scribing are available on every route.

A · Trumpet

B · Book

1 Which picture matches John Blanke's work as a trumpeter?

Help: Choose the trumpet or the book. Use source J.

2 What does John Blanke's payment record show?

Help: Read or listen to the relevant evidence card; point first.

3 Find "contribution" in word help. What does it mean?

Help: Use the word and meaning cards together.

4 Does it tell us all his feelings?

Help: Use the source limit or map key as a clue.

Standard arrival

Begin with questions 1 and 2. Continue when ready. Choose one route; reading, pointing and exact scribing are available on every route.

A · Trumpet

B · Book

1 Which picture matches John Blanke's work as a trumpeter? Explain your choice.

Help: Choose the trumpet or the book. Use source J.

2 What does John Blanke's payment record show?

Help: Use one source detail or labelled map feature.

3 Explain contribution using an example.

Help: Choose an example from the evidence cards.

4 Does it tell us all his feelings?

Help: State the reason for your answer.

Stretch arrival

Begin with questions 1 and 2. Continue when ready. Choose one route; reading, pointing and exact scribing are available on every route.

A · Trumpet

B · Book

1 Which picture matches John Blanke's work as a trumpeter? What can this teaching picture not tell us?

Help: Separate the illustration from historical or personal evidence.

2 What does John Blanke's payment record show? Give supporting evidence.

Help: Name the source or data label.

3 How does contribution help answer today's enquiry?

Help: Explain the connection, not only the definition.

4 Does it tell us all his feelings? Explain a limit or further check.

Help: Think about what the supplied evidence leaves uncertain.

Evidence cards

Read or listen to the cards. Original historical records, authored summaries and fictional teaching cases are labelled separately.

J John Blanke in 1507

A royal payment record identifies John Blanke as a trumpeter paid at the English court in 1507.

National Archives, E 36/214 f109

Limit: A payment records employment; it does not tell us all his experiences.

R Sarah Parker Remond

An American anti-slavery campaigner, Remond spoke in Britain. The archive presents her citizenship application alongside this context.

National Archives, HO 1/123/4809

Limit: The application and the archive's later explanatory text are different sources.

C Contribution and respect

An evidence-based display can recognise a musician's skilled work and a campaigner's challenge to slavery without assuming people with similar backgrounds lived identical lives.

Authored classroom case

Limit: This example does not describe every person or place.

Visual resources and data

Evidence	Focus
J	John Blanke in 1507
R	Sarah Parker Remond
C	Contribution and respect

Follow the method

1. Read the enquiry: What does John Blanke's payment record show?
2. Locate the evidence: J — A royal payment record identifies John Blanke as a trumpeter paid at the English court in 1507.
3. Think aloud: That he was paid as a trumpeter at the English court in 1507.
4. Check the limit or method: No. A payment record does not reveal his whole life.

Shared investigation

Make a decision, check the evidence, then explain. An individual or private response can replace speaking to the group.

1. Open John Blanke's record details.
2. Separate a recorded fact from an unsupported guess.

Item or draft	My decision or revision
Blanke was paid for music
Every person had the same experience
We need evidence for a display

Support choices

Supported: Start with the source title and date. Find one explicit detail.

Standard: Label origin, content and a claim the source can support.

Stretch: Weigh purpose, missing voices and the question being asked.
