

Diverse British history

Knowledge organiser

Learning goal

Investigate diverse British history linked to Black History Month.

Enquiry

How has migration shaped identity in Britain?

Word	Meaning
source	Something we use to find out
contribution	Something a person adds or does
respect	Treat people with dignity
evidence	Information supporting an answer

Key knowledge

Paid work as a court trumpeter.

They were made at different times for different purposes.

A frame to use

The record shows _____. This contribution mattered because _____.

Remember

Race does not determine interests, abilities or identity. Study named people through evidence; nobody needs to explain their own background.

Supported arrival

Begin with questions 1 and 2. Continue when ready. Choose one route; reading, pointing and exact scribing are available on every route.

1 Match “source” to its meaning.

Help: Use the two word cards shown: source and contribution. Match the meaning to the word.

2 What contribution is supported for John Blanke?

Help: Read or listen to the relevant evidence card; point first.

3 Find “contribution” in word help. What does it mean?

Help: Use the word and meaning cards together.

4 Why must a caption distinguish a record from later archive context?

Help: Use the source limit or map key as a clue.

Standard arrival

Begin with questions 1 and 2. Continue when ready. Choose one route; reading, pointing and exact scribing are available on every route.

1 What does source mean?

Help: Use the word bank if needed.

2 What contribution is supported for John Blanke?

Help: Use one source detail or labelled map feature.

3 Explain contribution using an example.

Help: Choose an example from the evidence cards.

4 Why must a caption distinguish a record from later archive context?

Help: State the reason for your answer.

Stretch arrival

Begin with questions 1 and 2. Continue when ready. Choose one route; reading, pointing and exact scribing are available on every route.

1 Use source accurately in a sentence.

Help: Keep the source context clear.

2 What contribution is supported for John Blanke? Give supporting evidence.

Help: Name the source or data label.

3 How does contribution help answer today's enquiry?

Help: Explain the connection, not only the definition.

4 Why must a caption distinguish a record from later archive context? Explain a limit or further check.

Help: Think about what the supplied evidence leaves uncertain.

Evidence cards

Read or listen to the cards. Original historical records, authored summaries and fictional teaching cases are labelled separately.

J John Blanke in 1507

A royal payment record identifies John Blanke as a trumpeter paid at the English court in 1507.

National Archives, E 36/214 f109

Limit: A payment records employment; it does not tell us all his experiences.

R Sarah Parker Remond

An American anti-slavery campaigner, Remond spoke in Britain. The archive presents her citizenship application alongside this context.

National Archives, HO 1/123/4809

Limit: The application and the archive's later explanatory text are different sources.

C Contribution and respect

An evidence-based display can recognise a musician's skilled work and a campaigner's challenge to slavery without assuming people with similar backgrounds lived identical lives.

Authored classroom case

Limit: This example does not describe every person or place.

Visual resources and data

Keep this page beside the shared and independent tasks.

Evidence	Focus
J	John Blanke in 1507
R	Sarah Parker Remond
C	Contribution and respect

Follow the method

1. Read the enquiry: What contribution is supported for John Blanke?
2. Locate the evidence: J — A royal payment record identifies John Blanke as a trumpeter paid at the English court in 1507.
3. Think aloud: Paid work as a court trumpeter.
4. Check the limit or method: They were made at different times for different purposes.

Shared investigation

Make a decision, check the evidence, then explain. An individual or private response can replace speaking to the group.

1. Choose evidence for a shared display about John Blanke and Sarah Remond.
2. Write a source-supported caption for each.

Record	Our response
Heading
First caption
Second caption
Selection reason

Support choices

Supported: Choose two sources and read one fact from each.

Standard: Write a caption that stays within what each source establishes.

Stretch: Explain what the selection highlights and what it leaves out.

Our explanation

Supported independent task

Complete this route only. Keep your own decisions; an adult may read, organise access or scribe your exact words.

- 1. Create two linked exhibition labels.
- 2. Explain one contribution using an actual source detail.
- 3. Answer two exit questions about evidence and diversity.

Help

Begin with one step. Read the sources with an adult, reduce the visible choice set and use: The record shows _____. This contribution mattered because _____.

Keep all required evidence; speech, pointing, drawing and exact scribing are available.

My outcome and supporting evidence

Check: book task, questioning and two exit questions.

Standard independent task

Complete this route only. Keep your own decisions; an adult may read, organise access or scribe your exact words.

- 1. Create two linked exhibition labels.
- 2. Explain one contribution using an actual source detail.
- 3. Answer two exit questions about evidence and diversity.

Help

The record shows _____. This contribution mattered because _____.

Check your evidence before adding a final explanation.

My outcome and supporting evidence

Check: book task, questioning and two exit questions.

Stretch independent task

Complete this route only. Keep your own decisions; an adult may read, organise access or scribe your exact words.

- 1. Create two linked exhibition labels.
- 2. Explain one contribution using an actual source detail.
- 3. Answer two exit questions about evidence and diversity.

Help

Plan your answer using the source labels. Use the frame if useful.

Explain how the two source types allow different questions.

My outcome and supporting evidence

Check: book task, questioning and two exit questions.

Exit ticket choices

Choose one route. Answer both questions individually using your normal access support.

Supported

What contribution is supported for John Blanke?

Why must a caption distinguish a record from later archive context?

Help: Use the word bank and a named evidence card.

Standard

What contribution is supported for John Blanke?

Why must a caption distinguish a record from later archive context?

Help: Include a source detail, location or value.

Stretch

What contribution is supported for John Blanke? Justify with evidence.

Why must a caption distinguish a record from later archive context? Evaluate a limitation.

Help: Weigh the evidence and name a limitation.
