

Arrival choices

You can begin without previous learning. Word help: protest means an action expressing opposition.

Start with 1 and 2. Try 3 and 4 when ready. Reading and exact scribing are available.

1 What does protest mean?

Support: Use the reminder strip or talk it through with an adult.

My response

2 Which meaning fits protest?

Support: Choose: An action expressing opposition OR Choosing not to use a service or buy goods.

My response

3 What happened after the 1955 arrest?

Support: Use the model evidence anchor B, C or read one relevant card together.

My response

4 Did that change end all racism?

Support: Give a reason when ready.

My response

Stretch: use a precise example or explain which detail supports your answer.

Evidence cards

Read, point or listen. Keep the source label with any detail you use.

A Before December 1955

Rosa Parks had years of civil-rights organising experience, including work with the NAACP. Montgomery buses enforced racial segregation.

Source: US National Park Service, Rosa Parks

Limit: This later biography selects events; it is not a recording made at the time.

B 1 December 1955

Parks was arrested after refusing to give up her seat to a white man on a Montgomery bus. Her action helped trigger a sustained community boycott.

Source: US National Park Service, Rosa Parks

Limit: One person's action should be connected to wider organisation and community participation.

C 1956 change

The boycott and legal action challenged segregation. A Supreme Court ruling and pressure on bus revenues contributed to the desegregation of Montgomery buses.

Source: US National Park Service, Rosa Parks

Limit: Bus desegregation did not end all racism or inequality.

D Later work

Parks moved to Detroit in 1957 and continued civil-rights work. In 1987 the Rosa and Raymond Parks Institute was established to support young people.

Source: US National Park Service, Rosa Parks

Limit: Later recognition is evidence of legacy, but not a measure of everyone's views.

Shared investigation

1. Place the campaign events in date order.
2. Explain one change between the first and later cards.

Work with a partner or adult, or use your own table. One person suggests; the other checks the evidence. Swap after one turn. Passing is allowed.

Our explanation

Support: Read one evidence card together. Highlight a useful detail. Rehearse with: In ____, ____. This changed ____ because ____.

Further challenge: Distinguish a change in law or policy from the end of all inequality.

Supported independent task

Complete this route only. Place key protest and rights events on a timeline.

1. Build an annotated timeline using 1955, 1956, 1957 and 1987.
2. Add a caption showing what changed.
3. Answer a chronology question independently.

Support: Read one evidence card together. Highlight a useful detail. Rehearse with: In ____, ____. This changed ____ because _____. Complete the organiser one space at a time. In ____, ____. This changed ____ because _____.

First event and date or time cue

Next event and date or time cue

Later event and date or time cue

Why this order fits the evidence

An adult may read or scribe your exact response. They should not choose the answer.
