Investigating a rights campaign / GROW_S1_W02

Outcome: Use sources to investigate a campaign for rights and change.

Evidence to retain: F: source annotations, evidence selection and questioning.

Forty minute route

Arrival 4 min; starter 3; model 6; shared task 7; check 2; independent 12; review 3; exit 3.
Pause time is flexible.

Preparation

Choose one independent route. Print the evidence and shared cards, required visual or data sheet, route worksheet and exit. The organiser is one separate A4 page. Keep answers with staff.

No segregation simulation, forced role-play or repetition of racist abuse. Explain the discriminatory system clearly and recognise collective action.

Access and regulation

Chunk sources and tasks; pre-teach vocabulary with images. Offer sentence stems, organisers, oral rehearsal and typing. Start with one modelled example; extend through a second source, comparison or supported judgement. Check the learner can begin within two minutes, then fade prompts.

Offer a predictable start, private response and agreed pause. No cold calling or forced personal disclosure. Rejoin at one clearly named next step. Keep teen-appropriate examples and the same learning goal across response modes.

Use sensitive content warnings where relevant. Do not ask for family details or personal experiences.

Assessment

Use questioning and the exit response to decide the next step. Record the learner's individual contribution and the access support used.

UAS: no approved unit code is supplied. Match the learner's evidence to the centre-selected unit and exact criteria before submission. This pack makes no automatic award claim.

Model and answers

Read these pages before teaching. Hide the model during independent assessment.

Question: Was Parks' action separate from all earlier organising?

Evidence: A Before December 1955: Rosa Parks had years of civil-rights organising experience, including work with the NAACP. Montgomery buses enforced racial segregation.

Think aloud: No. The source describes years of civil-rights work.

Check: What is a limitation of one later biography? It selects events and cannot represent every participant's experience.

Arrival answers

1. A sustained bus boycott and legal challenge contributed to desegregation in 1956.
2. An action expressing opposition
3. No. The source describes years of civil-rights work.
4. It selects events and cannot represent every participant's experience.

Shared activity reasoning

1. Years of organising — Supported. A describes earlier civil-rights work.
2. Parks alone changed everything — Not established. The campaign involved wider community and legal action.
3. The biography selects events — Source limit. A biography cannot include every experience.

Exit responses

Was Parks' action separate from all earlier organising? No. The source describes years of civil-rights work.

What is a limitation of one later biography? It selects events and cannot represent every participant's experience.

Teaching and evidence record

Supplied scheme of work teaching sequence: Apply the three source questions; annotate evidence and make a supported judgement about the campaign.

Look for

F: source annotations, evidence selection and questioning.

Accept accurate equivalents, including speech or exact scribing. Check the concept and use of evidence rather than length or handwriting. Record access support separately from content prompting.

BUILD: a concrete example with a reason or demonstrated action. GROW: explain or compare with a relevant detail. LAUNCH: connect evidence and reasoning; use a limitation when the outcome requires it. Keep RE responses non-GCSE.

Media

Original captioned teaching model made for this pack. It demonstrates the supplied reasoning; it is not historical footage, survivor testimony or a documentary. The full transcript and factual source credits are included.

Use manual steps for a calm pace. The silent MP4 has visible captions and a matching text transcript. External archive media is optional and should be previewed before class.
