

Judging a person's significance

Learning goal: Evaluate the significance of a person who created change.

Words to use

Word	Meaning
protest	An action expressing opposition
boycott	Choosing not to use a service or buy goods
segregation	Enforced separation of groups
significance	Why a person or event matters

Remember

Which card best supports a claim about a policy change? C, describing desegregation of Montgomery buses.

Can later work support a legacy judgement? Yes. D shows continued activity, but does not measure everyone's views.

How to show your learning

Choose the strongest evidence of Parks' significance.

I judge ____ strongest because it shows _____. Card ____ also shows _____.

Evidence matters

Fictional cases are teaching examples. Historical, geographical and religious claims use the named sources. A model video demonstrates a method.

You can respond by speaking, pointing, drawing, typing or writing. A fictional personal example is welcome.
