

Arrival choices

Previous lesson reminder:

Start with 1 and 2. Try 3 and 4 when ready. Reading and exact scribing are available.

1 Can a survivor's account reveal something a policy document may miss?

Support: Use the reminder strip or talk it through with an adult.

My response

2 Which meaning fits conflict?

Support: Choose: A serious struggle including war OR Deliberate unfair targeting of a group.

My response

3 Are we ranking the worth of people's lives?

Support: Use the model evidence anchor D or read one relevant card together.

My response

4 Why credit a source in a reflection?

Support: Give a reason when ready.

My response

Stretch: use a precise example or explain which detail supports your answer.

Evidence cards

Read, point or listen. Keep the source label with any detail you use.

P Factors before September 1939

Nazi expansion brought Austria and the Sudetenland under German control in 1938; German forces occupied the Czech lands in 1939. Repeated expansion and the later invasion of Poland help explain the widening conflict.

Source: USHMM Introduction to the Holocaust, territorial expansion context

Limit: These selected factors do not exhaust the diplomatic, economic and ideological causes.

A Europe in 1939

Nazi Germany's expansion and invasion of Poland on 1 September 1939 led Britain and France to declare war on 3 September. Longer-term conditions and leaders' choices help explain the conflict.

Source: USHMM historical context

Limit: A sequence of dates alone is not a complete causal explanation.

B The Holocaust

The Holocaust was the systematic persecution and murder of six million European Jews by Nazi Germany and its allies and collaborators. Persecution developed from 1933; the genocide took place during the Second World War. Nazi policies also persecuted and murdered other groups.

Source: United States Holocaust Memorial Museum

Limit: Do not collapse different groups' histories into identical experiences or treat genocide as inevitable.

C Gerda Haas remembers Ansbach

In her later oral history, Gerda Schild Haas recalls that religion mattered in her family. She describes Jewish affiliation appearing on forms and in community life in Ansbach before persecution.

Source: US Holocaust Memorial Museum oral history; Gerda Haas, prewar community life in Ansbach

Limit: This is a later remembered account of her experience. Broad generalisations in the full interview should not be treated as a survey of every Jewish family.

Read, point or listen. Keep the source label with any detail you use.

D Remembrance choices

An accurate memorial can name a person, recognise a life and credit evidence. A simple layout, readable text and a clear source can support respectful attention.

Source: Authored memorial design guidance

Limit: Avoid invented quotations, dramatic effects, graphic imagery and victim or perpetrator role-play.

Shared investigation

1. Compare remembrance choices using accuracy, recognition and evidence.
2. Justify a choice without ranking the value of victims' lives.

Work with a partner or adult, or use your own table. One person suggests; the other checks the evidence. Swap after one turn. Passing is allowed.

Use the evidence cards and any visual sheet. Follow the two shared steps above, then record one decision.

Our explanation

Support: Use the glossary and one chunk of evidence. Plan the claim and supporting detail before explaining.

Further challenge: Discuss a limitation of a brief memorial and what further learning it should invite.

Supported independent task

Complete this route only. Explain the significance of remembrance.

1. Explain the significance of remembrance using contextual and personal evidence.
2. Create a respectful reflection.
3. Evaluate how a particular remembrance choice helps an audience understand.
