

Arrival choices

Previous lesson reminder:

A · Two hands under the object

B · The object tossed across

Start with 1 and 2. Try 3 and 4 when ready. Reading and exact scribing are available.

1 What is one sign that Sam is welcome at the gurdwara?

Support: Use the reminder strip or talk it through with an adult.

My response

2 Which meaning fits respect?

Support: Choose: Treating people and things with care OR To hold or touch something with your hands.

My response

3 Why do readers often use a pointer with a Torah scroll?

Support: Use the model evidence anchor C or read one relevant card together.

My response

4 Do you have to touch an object to show respect for it?

Support: Give a reason when ready.

My response

Stretch: use a precise example or explain which detail supports your answer.

Evidence cards

Read, point or listen. Keep the source label with any detail you use.

A Our handling rules

Clean hands. Wait for the adult. Use two hands. Keep the object over the table. You may choose to look and not touch.

Source: Authored classroom rules

Limit: Rules for a classroom replica are not the same as the rules believers follow.

B A holy book

Many Muslims wash before touching the Qur'an and keep it in a high, clean place. In class we use a photo or a protected copy and do not put it on the floor.

Source: Authored RE summary

Limit: Practice varies between families and communities.

C The Torah pointer

A Torah scroll is handwritten. Readers often follow the words with a pointer called a yad so that fingers do not touch the scroll.

Source: Authored RE summary

Limit: Practice varies between communities.

D Why it matters

Careful handling shows respect for the people who find the object sacred. We can respect an object without sharing the belief.

Source: Authored classroom resource

Limit: Respect can be shown in many ways, including by only looking.

Shared investigation

1. Decide whether each action shows respect.

2. Explain who the respect is for.

Work with a partner or adult, or use your own table. One person suggests; the other checks the evidence. Swap after one turn. Passing is allowed.

Move or match the cards

Cards to use
