My response

4 Is reflection the same as worship?

Support: Give a reason when ready.

My response

Stretch: use a precise example or explain which detail supports your answer.

Evidence cards

Read, point or listen. Keep the source label with any detail you use.

A The Day of Peace

The United Nations set up the International Day of Peace. It is held every year on 21 September. People around the world think about how to build peace.

Source: Authored summary of the United Nations observance

Limit: A day of peace does not end conflict. It asks people to act.

B Peace starts small

Fictional case: two pupils both want the same seat. They agree to swap each day. A small fair choice keeps the room calm.

Source: Authored classroom case

Limit: This example does not describe every person, family or community.

C Including someone

Fictional case: Rio eats alone at break. Dev asks, "Want to sit with us?" Being included helps Rio feel safe.

Source: Authored classroom case

Limit: This example does not describe every person, family or community.

D Reflection

Reflection is quiet thinking. It is not worship. You can think, draw, or look at a calm picture.

Source: Authored classroom resource

Limit: People reflect in different ways. Silence is one option, not a rule.

Shared investigation

1. Decide whether each action helps build peace.

2. Say who feels safer because of it.

Work with a partner or adult, or use your own table. One person suggests; the other checks the evidence. Swap after one turn. Passing is allowed.

Move or match the cards

Cards to use
Ask someone to sit with you
Leave someone out on purpose
Agree to take turns with the seat

Possible labels: Builds peace / Needs changing

Our explanation

Support: Show two choices. Read one short instruction. Point, match or say a word, then add a reason when ready.
