

Arrival choices

Previous lesson reminder:

A · Listening to the speaker

B · Talking over the speaker

Start with 1 and 2. Try 3 and 4 when ready. Reading and exact scribing are available.

1 When is the International Day of Peace?

Support: Use the reminder strip or talk it through with an adult.

My response

2 Which meaning fits meaning?

Support: Choose: What something stands for or why it matters OR Something you remember.

My response

3 What can make an object special?

Support: Use the model evidence anchor B, C or read one relevant card together.

My response

4 Do you have to share a real object from home?

Support: Give a reason when ready.

My response

Stretch: use a precise example or explain which detail supports your answer.

Evidence cards

Read, point or listen. Keep the source label with any detail you use.

A Speaking frame

This is _____. It is special because _____. A short share lasts about 20 seconds.

Source: Authored classroom resource

Limit: A frame is a support. Your own words are welcome.

B Object card: a key ring

Fictional case: Lee has a key ring from a seaside trip. It reminds Lee of a day out with an aunt.

Source: Authored classroom case

Limit: This example does not describe every person, family or community.

C Object card: prayer beads

Some people use beads to help them pray or reflect. For them the beads link to belief.

Source: Authored RE summary

Limit: Beads are used in different ways in different faiths. Some people use none.

D Respectful listening

Give the speaker time. Listen in a way that works for you; eye contact is optional. Choose a kind comment or respectful question. Sharing privately with an adult is welcome.

Source: Authored classroom rules

Limit: Listening can look different for different people. Eye contact is not required.

Shared investigation

1. Match each object card to the reason it is special.
2. Practise one 20-second share using the frame.

Work with a partner or adult, or use your own table. One person suggests; the other checks the evidence. Swap after one turn. Passing is allowed.
