Sharing something special / BUILD_RE_A1_W07

Outcome: Share or describe a 'special to me' object respectfully.

Evidence to retain: F: shared or described object with one reason.

Forty minute route

Arrival 4 min; starter 3; model 6; shared task 7; check 2; independent 12; review 3; exit 3.
Pause time is flexible.

Preparation

Choose one independent route. Print the evidence and shared cards, required visual or data sheet, route worksheet and exit. The organiser is one separate A4 page. Keep answers with staff.

Offer choices of audience and format; model respectful listening; keep activity brief; record verbal evidence if useful.

Access and regulation

No requirement to bring a real object; may present to adult only; speaking frame; pointing/drawing/audio option; no forced public speaking.

Offer a predictable start, private response and agreed pause. No cold calling or forced personal disclosure. Rejoin at one clearly named next step. Keep teen-appropriate examples and the same learning goal across response modes.

This is learning about religion and worldviews, not worship. Nobody is asked to share a personal belief, family detail or loss.

Assessment

Use questioning and the exit response to decide the next step. Record the learner's individual contribution and the access support used.

UAS: no approved unit code is supplied. Match the learner's evidence to the centre-selected unit and exact criteria before submission. This pack makes no automatic award claim.

Model and answers

Read these pages before teaching. Hide the model during independent assessment.

Question: What can make an object special?

Evidence: B Object card: a key ring: Fictional case: Lee has a key ring from a seaside trip. It reminds Lee of a day out with an aunt. C Object card: prayer beads: Some people use beads to help them pray or reflect. For them the beads link to belief.

Think aloud: A person, a memory, a belief or a place.

Check: Do you have to share a real object from home? No. A photo, drawing or object card is a complete response.

Arrival answers

1. Every year on 21 September.
2. What something stands for or why it matters
3. A person, a memory, a belief or a place.
4. No. A photo, drawing or object card is a complete response.

Shared activity reasoning

1. Seaside key ring — A memory. It reminds Lee of a day out.
2. Prayer beads — A belief. They help some people pray or reflect.
3. A medal from a relative — A person. It links to someone who matters.

Exit responses

What can make an object special? A person, a memory, a belief or a place.

Do you have to share a real object from home? No. A photo, drawing or object card is a complete response.

Teaching and evidence record

Supplied scheme of work teaching sequence: Arrival: 4 retrieval questions. Starter: mystery object — why might this matter to someone? I Do: model a 20-second show-and-tell using 'This is... It is special because...'. We Do: practise using teacher-provided object cards. You Do: share a real object, photo, drawing or teacher-provided object card with the group or adult. Exit ticket: one thing that can make an object special.

Look for

F: shared or described object with one reason.

Accept accurate equivalents, including speech or exact scribing. Check the concept and use of evidence rather than length or handwriting. Record access support separately from content prompting.

BUILD: a concrete example with a reason or demonstrated action. GROW: explain or compare with a relevant detail. LAUNCH: connect evidence and reasoning; use a limitation when the outcome requires it. Keep RE responses non-GCSE.

Media

Original captioned teaching model made for this pack. It demonstrates the supplied reasoning; it is not historical footage, survivor testimony or a documentary. The full transcript and factual source credits are included.

Use manual steps for a calm pace. The silent MP4 has visible captions and a matching text transcript. External archive media is optional and should be previewed before class.
